Carey Olsen is Which lawyer? leading firm

LEADING firm status has been achieved by Carey Olsen Guernsey across six practice areas in the PLC Which lawyer? 2009 Yearbook.

Carey Olsen is the highest ranking Guernsey firm, achieving “leading firm” status across banking and finance; corporate/M&A; dispute resolution; investment funds, private client; and private equity/venture capital.

The yearbook commentary notes Carey Olsen’s strength in the Guernsey legal sector and makes special mention of the “best friends” agreement with leading offshore firm Maples and Calder early in 2008, giving it access to BVI and Cayman law capabilities.

Partners at the firm also receive 10 mentions in the listings of leading and highly recommended individual lawyers.

The PLC Which lawyer? Yearbook is one of the leading guides for in-house counsel on instructing lawyers worldwide. It is based on extensive research among clients, referral partners and 6,000 corporate legal departments.

Deputy Managing Partner of Carey Olsen in Guernsey Russell Clark said: “This endorsement recognises the strength in depth that we have established across key practice areas and is a credit to the lawyers working for the firm.

“Such recognition is important, given the status of the readership and the high quality work referred to Carey Olsen from leading law firms off the island, in London or further afield.”
