De La Salle take the honours in Carey Olsen Cup

At the inaugural fixture of the Carey Olsen Cup played at the Farmers Field on Saturday 13th June, De La Salle College 1st XI beat the Farmers by 97 runs. De La Salle, after winning the toss, chose to bat, and amassed 225 from their 35 overs. An impressive partnership between Jo Mayes (56) and Chuggy Perchard (77) provided the platform for the victory.

In reply, 10 overs of excellent and accurate swing bowling from the 1st XI opening bowlers Andrew Rabet and Ed Kelleher put the Farmers behind the run rate, whilst claiming the wickets of both openers. Things went from bad to worse for the Farmers as the middle order tried to press on, with wickets falling at regular intervals. Only Dave Buxton (57) provided any resistance to the barrage of excellent bowling.

John Kelleher, a partner at Carey Olsen, the new sponsors of Farmers CC, presented the trophy to Chuggy Perchard the De La Salle captain.

Kelleher congratulated all the players and said of Carey Olsen's new sponsorship deal with the club: "As part of our commitment to Farmers CC we are hoping to do our bit to help develop cricket in Jersey. This link between the Farmers CC and De La Salle College is a key part of that and I hope that this annual challenge match for the Carey Olsen Cup will become an important part of Jersey's cricketing calendar."
