Amie is a senior administration specialist within Carey Olsen's corporate services business with responsibility for all aspects of corporate administration for sophisticated corporate entities.

She has particular responsibility for new entity incorporations and formations, and the review and onboarding of existing entities transferring into the business.

Career

Prior to joining Carey Olsen in 2020, Amie worked for two major Bermuda corporate service provider businesses where her primary focus was on the incorporation of new Bermuda entities, assisting clients to transfer existing entities into the business, and the ongoing corporate administration of such entities.

Amie started her career working for a sole practitioner in Bermuda specialising in corporate law and corporate administration.

Amie studied in the UK and, after obtaining a BSc (Hons) Equine Science and (Business) Management in 2003, she moved back to Bermuda and has since completed vocational training in a variety of corporate secretarial and legal courses, including corporate secretarial practices, vocational paralegal studies and a number of CILEX Level 3 certificates.

In 2007 Amie obtained a Certificate in Law from Kent University and is currently enrolled on the ICOSA: The Chartered Governance Institute qualifying programme.
