

Our legal services in the British Virgin Islands

Our BVI practice is focused on international commercial transactions, dispute resolution, investment funds and offshore structures involving BVI companies.

The practice is managed by Clinton Hempel, Ben Mays and Linda Lee supported by senior lawyers with significant BVI and international experience.

Our partners have been at the forefront of corporate law in the jurisdiction for many years and are regarded as experts in the field by the leading legal directories.

We use our knowledge of BVI law and our commercial experience of international transactions to provide effective advice on matters and structures centred in, or including, the British Virgin Islands. We ensure that the offshore component serves the overall commercial objectives.

Our BVI-Africa expertise distinguishes us from our competitors and has proven to be hugely beneficial for clients using BVI companies for structuring investments into Africa.

The British Virgin Islands Business Company is widely recognised by the world's leading banks and financial institutions as a safe, efficient and robust vehicle for facilitating the flow of finance.

We work with an extensive range of clients including directors, global financial institutions, investment funds, multi-lateral lending agencies, private equity houses and private individuals, including entrepreneurs and trustees.
