Chris Duncan is counsel in our trusts and private wealth practice in the Cayman Islands. Chris is also a key member of our Crypto and Blockchain group across both the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands.

Chris advises on a broad range of contentious and non-contentious trusts and private client matters, with a particular focus on complex and high value advisory and restructuring matters, many of which have required court sanction or intervention, and has significant experience in hostile trust and estate litigation. Chris has also advised trustees, family offices and institutional clients in relation to regulatory matters and tax investigations. In addition, Chris advises clients on the full spectrum of crypto and digital assets matters, including wealth protection structures for estate and succession planning, structuring and regulatory advice in connection with token issuances and early stage fundraising, centralised and decentralised exchanges and VC funds, NFT platforms and mining/staking operations. Chris has published numerous articles and regularly speaks on panels and webinars on private wealth and crypto.

Chris is a registered Trusts and Estates practitioner, and has been recognised as a leading private client lawyer by eprivateclient making the Top 35 under 35 lists for both the UK and the Channel Islands in 2018 and 2019. He also featured in the Citywealth Future Leaders List in 2021, the Top 100 Private Client Lawyers in 2020 and was shortlisted for the Citywealth Lawyer of the Year (IFC) – Senior/Managing Associate category for 2020. Chris is ranked in the Chambers and Partners High Net Worth Guide with sources noting “he can navigate through matters seamlessly” and that he is “very commercial in his thinking”. Chris was also recently recognised in the Citywealth Top 100 Crypto Advisors for 2022 as a highly accredited advisor.

His recent experience includes:

- Advising on a significant pre-IPO restructuring of various Cayman Islands trusts and BVI companies in advance of multi-billion dollar IPO.
- The creation of a variety of private wealth structures to hold and invest crypto and digital assets.
