Jasmine is a partner in Carey Olsen's corporate and finance practice, based in London.

Jasmine advises on both BVI and Cayman Islands finance and corporate law and has significant experience in banking and finance matters, (including fund finance structures, acquisition and leverage finance, debt and equity financings as well as experience with security enforcement in the BVI and Cayman) and corporate matters, (including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, shareholder arrangements, group reorganisations and corporate restructurings). She also advises investment and private equity funds on distressed situations.

Jasmine regularly advises Indian companies and clients on banking and corporate matters, as well as those looking to make foreign investments into India.

Jasmine also recently advised Stride Gaming plc on the BVI corporate aspects of its takeover by Rank Group plc which won Carey Olsen the Middle Market Deal of the Year at the Deal Awards Europe 2019.

Jasmine is recognised as a 'Leading Individual' by Legal 500, by Chambers UK for her corporate and finance expertise and by Who's Who Legal (2023) for her private funds work.

Career

Jasmine trained and qualified at Slaughter and May, where she spent 9 years, prior to working for another offshore law firm.

Whilst at Slaughter and May, she advised investment banks and corporate clients in relation to capital markets and structured finance transactions, securitisations, IPOs, investment fund, private equity and banking structures as well as providing general commercial and corporate advice to clients.

In her last role, Jasmine focused on corporate and finance transactions as well as advising alternative investment funds and private equity funds. She also advised clients on a number of group restructurings and distressed situations.
