Jenna is counsel in the firm's Cayman Island office. She advises on all aspects of corporate restructuring and insolvency.

She has worked on a wide range of contentious and non-contentious complex restructurings, insolvencies, refinancings, distressed M&A, security enforcement and high yield bond restructurings across multiple jurisdictions.

Jenna has experience acting for distressed investors, corporates, lenders, ad-hoc groups of bondholders, shareholders, directors, insolvency officeholders and other key parties in the distressed market.

Career

Prior to joining Carey Olsen, Jenna was with Freshfields in London where she advised on a number of multi-jurisdictional financial restructurings. She began her career in Toronto with a top tier Canadian law firm and was seconded to Chicago where she focused on US-based clients and cross-border restructurings.

Jenna graduated with a JD from Queen's University and a BSc in Mathematical Science from McMaster University. She was admitted to the bar in Ontario, Canada in 2010.
